

Do you want to join the growing movement for economic and environmental sanity? Are you looking for a way to "live simply, that others may simply live?"

Sat., Feb. 15, 2003, 1 to 3 p.m.

"Global Sustainability, Local Responsibility: How to tackle global environmental challenges in your own life and make a difference."

An illustrated talk by Jon Foley, Director of SAGE, the Center for Sustainability and Global Environment, at the UW Madison, will look at changes we can make to protect our planet and its most vulnerable inhabitants.

DOERS Energy Fair

Test Drive a Honda Hybrid, buy the latest compact fluorescent light bulbs, enter a free drawing to win a home energy audit worth $300, a torchiere lamp, or a set of 6 CFLs. (Must be present to win.) Visit the information tables of many businesses and groups promoting sustainability.

Orchard Ridge United Church of Christ
1501 Gilbert Rd.
Madison

(Accessible via bus on Route 50 from the West Transfer Station.)

Complementary tea and baklava will be served following the talk and the action component of the program.

DOERS, PO Box 259525, Madison, WI 53725-9525
(608) 251-6892 (during normal business hours)

<http://doerswi.homestead.com> doers@terracon.net

Please contact us if you would like to help organize or publicize this important event!